A hearing was held in Winooski Thurs. day afternoon in the office of Health Officer Dr. E. A. Burdick before Dr. C. S. Caverly, of Rutland of the state board of health, on the petition presented the board a few days ago and signed by about thirty-five residents of the vilinge asking the board to prohibit the cutting of ice on Gill Brook pand. The cause of the trouble originated in a permit issued to H. A. Bailey by the water comoners to cut ice on Gill Brook pond and the aigners of the petition believed that having men and horses at work on the pond would tend to pollute the water and make it unfit for drinking purposes. Doctor Caverly reviewed the testimony and promised to bring the facts before rate with the signers of the petition.

A gentleman wearing a shiny silk hat dipped in stepping off the curbing at the corner of Elmwood avenue and North street in Burlington Friday, and as he was carying two sample cases, was unable to retain his balance.
